The Army of Aimless Young Men.

The New York Bulletin remarks with much truth that "one of the most serious hindrances to the return of better times is the vast number of young men who are adrift in the large cities who can get nothing to do, simply because they can do nothing anybody wants done." There is wisdom enough in this simple suggestion to furnish food for much wholesome meditation. The evil referred to is not one that is to be laid at the door of "hard times," however; it is really the outcome of the era of false and inflated prosperity which preceded the panic; and the business depression did not create it, but simply brought it to light. The fact is, that for many years we have been steadily diminishing the number of apprentices in the various industries. We have had, to be sure, schools of technological instruction, and colleges of agriculture and science, but the results by them have been notoriously out of all proportion to the delay. The number of youths who are willing—or whose parents are willing for them—to submit to the hard, practical, continuous discipline of the workshop has grown each year less. Living in a society based on the principle of human equality, and depending for its existence upon the recognition of the worth and dignity of labor, we have somehow contrived to nourish an aristocratic spirit which looks down upon the grime and soot and smoke of the shop and the factory as something coarse and degrading. The practice of apprenticing boys to a useful trade has gone lamentably out of fashion; it is no longer to the shop but to the store that the American youth looks for employment; the yard-stick supplants the hammer and the saw; and after picking up a smattering of many sorts of knowledge in the common schools, and rushing through a hasty course of book-keeping, the boy of the period expects to be at once launched upon mercantile pursuits, with a good chance of attaining success and a competency. The consequence is that those classes of employment termed "light" and "genteel" have been enormously overcrowded. During the inflation era it did not so much matter, and merchants retained in their service shoals of clerks who were of no further use than to keep up the appearance of an immensity of business. But with the panic came retrenchment, and month by month the lines have narrowed. By squads and battalions these young men have been set adrift, having but one thing in the world they knew how to do, and the market altogether closed to that. — Boston Journal.

A Chicago young man of twenty-nine, college graduate and lawyer, married an elderly lady of fifty-three because she had $5,000. Now, after living together for three years, they have become parties to an amicable suit to a divorce, the condition being that the old lady should select her husband's second wife, and remain in the house as a sort of bereaved mother-in-law.

The venerable Zach Chandler is said to have brought with him to Washington several quaint and curious forms of profanity, of his own invention, during his late respite from his active cares of office. It is also said that one of his oaths is liable to be fifteen minutes in passing a given point.

Theodore Tilton says that Mrs. Tilton's card was a surprise to him; that he had no agency in its origin, preparation or publication; that there had been no overtures whatever for a family re-union; that he was going to Europe, and that this is the first and last statement he is going to make on the subject.

"My specialty is single and double entry," as the burglar said when he called into the mansion of Mr. Moneybag for the second time.

The sudden unpopularity of the phonograph in Rome is all owing to Bubblus. He bought the first phonograph ever owned in this city, and it came by express Friday evening. He took it under his arm and stopped in at several places to discuss politics and things, and when he got home and attempted to exhibit the phonograph to his wife, that depraved instrument remarked in several distinct tones: "Set'm up for the boys, barkeeper. Whoop, hoory! Yer's luck. Fill the flowing bowl. Who's afraid of the old woman." No more phonograps in Rome."

The New York Tribune, of yesterday, summarizing its Washington dispatches, says: "The Florida sensation was intended to be brought out to assist the Blair party in securing action in the house on the quo warranto bill. Its premature disclosure has prevented its use for any such purpose. Very little effect has been produced by it."

Paul Cassagnac is coming to this country. This is the place for him. He can get into more fights here in a week by publishing the names in the Police Court than he could get into in France in a year; and, as he will probably get licked every time, it may do him good, and send him back to France, a sadder, wiser and more circumspect man.

The man who advertises in the newspapers to send directions that will enable a person to make two hundred dollars a month, ows his washer woman for three months' washing, and was seen a few days ago trying to borrow five dollars to pay a week's board bill.

A FINANCIAL CONTRAST.

In these times of discount and premiums, debts and bankruptcy, it is well to examine the finance of a country, where these things are unknown. And in this connection, it seems strange that no student in Congress has advanced the French system for consideration and adoption in the United States. Her war debt and expense have been fully paid. She has commenced to loan money, and her people, after an expensive defeat, are already the most prosperous people in the world. The London Standard, in a leading article, draws a comparison between the United States and France respecting the return of specie payment. It says:

The financial conduct of France has been marked by the most consummate ability, while that of America has been blundering and short-sighted. The Bank of France has resumed specie payment since the first of January, and with such remarkable skill has the feat been accomplished, and so little change has it made in the ordinary course of business, that some of the Paris papers are actually disputing whether in fact the suspension is at an end. The possibility of such an argument is the highest testimonial to the management of the bank. When it has so conducted its business that the trading public is unaware of any change when the notes lose their legal tender character, we have incontestable proof that, through an exceptional trying period, the managment has been above all praise. In America the incontrovertible paper is still depreciated, and a hot discussion is going on as to whether resumption can be effected at the time fixed by law, and even as to the metal in which the debts of the country are to be paid. France is sustaining a weight of taxation that in any other continental country would be ruinous, and is straining every nerve to once more replace her military prestige. America, on the other hand, is so far removed from powerful rivals that it is free to live its life and devote all its energies to the development of its own well-being, having no army or navy of any great consequence to maintain.

TEMPERANCE.

Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes is in trouble. Why? Well, she was lately invited to make a trip down the Delaware on an excursion steamer and she went. So far, all is well. Mrs. Rutherford B. is the bell sheep of a temperance flock which bore her name. It bears her name no longer. Why? Well, when she boarded yon steamer, that subsidiary drink known as claret punch was in circulation, and she did not rebel. The depraved persons who paid for that vessel chose to cool themselves with that insidious mixture, and the act called forth no protest from Mrs. Rutherford. It is argued that she should have quenched this hilarity, even by force of arms, and hence her name has been taken down from the list. She bids farewell to all her temperate greatness and must ask mercy from the superior beings who devote their lives to moderation and water. The discipline of temperance organizations is working up to a very high pitch, and we expect to learn that the templar must carry a gimlet with which to perforate the gin barrel which meets his eye. Also a stomach pump with which to relieve the loaded vessel. Fiat temperentia, ruat Mrs. Hayes.

"OBSERVER."

Some man who lacks the ability to observe writes over the above signature to the Virginia Chronicle. He speaks of the grand jury report and says that Republicans are disgusted, completely demoralized, and it is doubtful whether they will recover sufficently to make an effort. "Observer" has hardly a doubt that the Democrats will carry everything this fall and seems to leave the inference that no one is disgusted except Republicans. "Observer" is no doubt a twin of "Zephyr," the other imaginative penster, who serves the desires of a certain clique at the expense of facts. Considering then that there is not one assertion made by "Observer," which is neither exaggeration, or missrepresentation, we recommend the Chronicle to get another correspondent. Try "Zephyr" awhile, although we would not swear that they are not one.

The house of Representatives has passed the Indian Appropriation bill without debate. It amounts to $4,772,000.

SUNDAY NEWS.

Turkish insurgents have surprised a camp near Phellepopolis and captured 1000 prisoners.

The appropriation for Nevada Indians reaches $15,000. That would buy more Indians than we own.

England has made proclamation that she expects every man to do his duty, and her soldiers are therefore ordered into the ranks.

John L. Vance, ex-Congressman from Ohio, who was lately reported in San Francisco, has returned from that city to Cincinnati, Ohio. He is undoubtedly insane.

San Franciscans of the adventurous ilk, hope to profit by the proposed war. It is whispered that a bold privateer will be fitted out to prey upon England's commerce.

The prominent Southern Congressmen took a recess lately and junketed in Boston. Gov. Rice did the square thing in the way of entertainment. And then all wanted to see "No north, no south, no east, no west, but only a common country.

The Florida sensation turns out to be no sensation at all. Prominent Democrats discountenance it lest constant agitation may produce an injurious reaction against them this fall. It is probable the last serious attempt which will be made to unseat the President.

One hundred thousand foreigners have already arived at Paris to witness the ceremonies at tne opening of the Exhibition on Wednesday next (May 1). Prices of living have advanced, but not to the extent that was feared. The Exhibition will not be in full trim until the beginning of June. The buildings are finished, and exhibitors only are behind hand. The English, American, Swiss and Dutch sections are most advanced.

The amount of United States notes retired during April in consequence of the issue of national bank notes will be about $1,200,000. The Secretary of the Treasury orders this amount to be replaced by silver dollars, to be paid out in the course of business. This sum will be distributed among the various sub-treasuries and public depositors, so that to this extent silver dollars will be paid out for currency obligations. This payment of silver dollars will not interfere with procuring silver dollars in exchange at par for gold coin at any time.

RED-HOT PAPER.

The Nevada (Cal.) Weekly Gazette has recently inherited a new editor who proclaimed that he was going to make things "red hot." The first heat attained was confined to his scissors, and they have become so hot that whenever the editor clips an item the name of the paper is invariably burned off. The "red hot" issue of last week contains five columns, one of which was stolen from the Reno Gazette, and no credit given. That is sultry practice, surely.

New Postal Routes for Nevada.

The new Post Route bill, which has just passed the House provides for the following new routes in Nevada:

From Battle Mountain, Lander county, to Tuscarora.

From Battle Mountain, Lander county to Lewis District.

From Cherry Creek, White Pine county, to Hunter, District.

From Ward city to Osceola, White Pine county.

From Eureka, via Morey, to Tybo, Nye county.

From Tybo, Nye county, to Tem Phaute, Lincoln county.

From Dayton, Lyon county, via Fort Churchill, Wabusha and Mason valley, to Belleville, Esmeralda county.

From Morey, Nye county, via Duckwater, Current Creek and white River, to Ward City, Whie Pine county.

Captain Thompson, the Piute brave and oracle called on us this morning. In the course of the interview the question was put to him as to the number of wives in which he might revel in the possession. His answer was: "Me only got one wife. One woman nearly hell; two woman all same heap too dam no good".—Reveille.

THE NEW DOLLAR.—Here is the print of McEwen's genial hoof in the Eureka Republican:

"I came to the coast in forty-nine," he bawled in a Main-street saloon last night as he slapped a new silver dollar on the bar, "and I've got bullion yet. Gimme a drink and take it out o' this Mexican turkey buzzard, for it ain't no American eagle, nohow."

KILLING IN NEVADA CITY.

Johnny Weldon the Victim—The Circumstances.

On Sunday morning early, Nevada City, (Cal.) had a man for breakfast, and we learn that deceased was for a time resident in this county. Johnny Weldon, or Whildon, was for some time a miner at the Con. Poe mine, and is a brother-in-law of Harvey, who was then foreman of the mine. The circumstances which led to the killing are given to us as follows through a private letter:

An individual, the worse for liquor, had been chaffing an old man upon his violin playing, when the old man becoming incensed knocked him down. E. Jewell, the keeper of the saloon, in which the shooting occurred, then attempted to put the old man out, but was prevented by Weldon who interfered. A scuffle ensued which did no harm and the parties were separated. Words ensued, however, and Welden drew a pistol and fired a shot through the ceiling and another through the floor. "Those were not for you," said he, "but this one is." Threupon he fired at Jewell, when the latter drew his pistol and shot Weldon through the neck, killing him almost instantly.

The affair was entirely uncalled for, starting as it did from trivial causes, and was only made possible by the whiskey which had been taken by the crowd.

Jottings.

—Crews rack is well patronized.

—Mining stocks have the hard times look.

—Now is the time to try A. Jose's champagne cider.

—The assessment on Justice of $1.50 per share is delinquent to-day.

—The lyceum, we presume, is dead. Nothing has been heard from it of late.

—A fire yesterday in Virginia City came n ar destroying the Ophir hoisting works.

—A second-hand range is offered for sale in the 50-cent column. Read it for particulars.

—The May Scribner is an unusually interesting number. Read the article on the New York Postoffice.

—Sixty-eight bars of Bonanza bullion were shipped west on Saturday night. Value, about $275,000.

—A large number of reserved seats were engaged by noon for Owens' entertainment this evening at the Academy of Music.

—From parties who have just returned from Pyramid, we learn that the Jones & Kinkead mine looks better than ever.

—The prospects are that summer weather is about at hand—and yet it may be freezing cold to-night, and require overcoats and heavy shawls to-morrow.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon as Mr. R. W. and lady friend, and Mr. L. J. and lady friend were driving near the prison grounds, the horse of Lysle fell to the ground and Mr. W.'s team, which was very close behind and making excellent time, ran into the buggy of the former gentleman making a complete wreck of it, while W.'s horse was badly cut about the shoulders and otherwise scratched and bruised. The young ladies maintained presence of mind, nor received the slightest injury. The debris was soon gathered up and all returned to town, pleased that no person was hurt if they must regret that romance of a most unwelcome form had marred their pleasure. More work for the carriage maker, veterinary surgeon and the reporter.

THE FRIEDMAN FACTION.

Incendiary Speeches—J. C. Lewis as an Interpreter—John Richardson "Eloquates."

Last Saturday evening Reno Opera House was filled to overflowing with old line Republicans, Democrats and Workingmen. The occasion was the departure of L. E. Friedman from the Workingmen's original club. Mr. Friedman, J. C. Lewis and John Richardson took the stand and Friedman stated the object of the meeting. He then called upon J. A. Jones, the great orator, whom he supposed to be a friend of Friedman and the workingmen. Jones, however, proceeded in an able, eloquent, brilliant and disconnected discourse, to prove that he had bamfoozled Friedman. Jones concluded his lecture by intimating that Friedman ought to be examined for insanity. This of course amused the crowd, and they proceeded to show a large degree of disrespect for Mr. Friedman. This gentleman now arose to define his intentions and was greeted by a majority request to "close that jaw," "cook-a-doodle-doo," "me-ow, me-ow," "pull down your vest," &c., &c. Mr. Jones then interrupted Mr. Friedman's incoherent remarks and asked the true Workingmen to follow him and leave. Mr. Hoole, Charles Queen, Walker, White, Larry Hoge, and all of the immediate henchmen of the original club left the hall and speedily had a meeting of their own on the outside.

Mr. Friedman tried to speak again, but his voice was not strong enough. Mr. Lewis then explained the object of the meeting and Mr. Friedman tried to carry out that object. The meeting wouldn't have it.

John Richardson then took the stand, and in a deep double bass voice, rich and musical, requested that the American eagle be called the king of birds; that there be no North or South, and that the American flag be painted sea-green. Mr. Richardson wanted everything better than it was, and if the Workingmen could bring about that end he would join them. [Applause.]

Mr. Friedman again attempted to speak, and closed with this beautiful peroration: "Gentlemen, this hall I hired, and I shall now close."

The crowd then filed out, but waited to pay groans to Friedman.

The general verdict is that Freidman was not treated squarely, and that he may yet persevere in organizing a party which shall man the ship of state, and lead her into the haven of prosperous peace and political paradise. So mote it be.

DISTRICT COURT.—About 6 o'clock last Saturday evening the jury in the case of Ricard vs. C. P. R. R. returned a verdict of $4,000 as damages to the plaintiff. Counsel for defendant moved a stay of proceedings for thirty days—five days to file notice of motion for a new trial or appeal to the Supreme Court, and 25 days in which to complete and present for action by the Court said motion for new trial or appeal. The jurors in this case were discharged, and a venire for eighteen others issued and made returnable this morning. Monday, May 13th was set as the day for settlement of the estate of M. V. Gilbert, deceased. This forenoon the case of the State vs. L. Woodward, Ed. Berger, Ed. Gillis and Chas. Woods, came up for trial. These young men, the defendants, are charged with and have been indicted by the Grand Jury for burglary. Their cause is presented by Waldo & Julien and Roger Johnson.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Washoe Land and Water company was held at the court-house last Saturday evening, and adopted their code of by-laws and transacted other business. The survey for their water ditch or canal not having been completed, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President. The survey of this ditch will be completed some time this week, and a meeting of the company will be held sometime next month.

NEVADA RAILWAY.—From a stockholder in the Battle Mountain & Austin railway, we learn that forty-five miles of the survey has been completed, and that the surveyors are now running their level and ride lines from Battle Mountain to Addington. This part of the work will be completed in about two weeks. The survey is being as rapidly made as possible.

CONFIRMED.—Eleven persons were confirmed yesterday at the Episcopal church. Of this number five are pupils of the Episcopal seminary and six residents of the town.

Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard.

Editor Gazette:—The sermons delivered by Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard at the Baptist church yesterday, morning and evening, were fine efforts, and well worth hearing. The house was pretty well filled last evening, and had it not been for the attraction at the other churches, there would not have been even standing room for all. Mr. H. is a fine scholar, a gentlemen, and more than all a christian. Though broken down in health, he continues his good work, taking his life in his own hands, he goes forth and works, boldly, fearlessly, and successfully, for struggling humanity and the cause of Christ. We hear that his work in Sierra valley, where he has been residing for the past seven months, has been a work of love. Those who have not entered a church for years go daily and nightly to hear him, and go away feeling better and happier. Such a man we need here. One gentleman made the remark a the close of last evening's service, "I wish we could chain him to this place," and that is only one of the many remarks that were made. But since we cannot keep him, we hope to hear him again soon, and he will always have the prayers and best wishes of a christian people for a complete restoration of health and success in his labors of love.

ONE OF THE CONGREGATION.

Reno, April 29th.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and under wear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-28-tf

Good Speech.

A Nevada politician was elected on the merits of one single speech. All he said was: "Fellow-countrymen, follow me to yonder saloon."—Ex.

And now another campaign approaches and the non-literary candidate selects a quiet corner where he can hope by earnest application to commit every line of that speech to memory. The platform pleases, the sentiment is congenial, and the oration contains about all which Nevada politicians think it necessary to say to voters.

ASSESSMENT.—The Trustees of the Overman mining company have levied an assessment of three dollars per share, aggregating $115,200 on said mining stock. The holders of this stock will be pleased to know that this is but the forty-first assessment, making a total assessment amount of $3,169,080 levied by the generous trustees of this company. But what is better still, not one cent of all this sum has ever returned to the stockholders. The stock to-day is quoted at $9. Before this assessment is delinquent it may touch its figures of last fall.

JUST WHAT PARENTS WANT.—The American Young Folks for May has been received. It is published at Topeka Kansas, by J. K. Hudson, at 50 cents per year. It is full of useful, entertaining reading, pure and elevating in character. It contains school plays parlor games, a postoffice, Natural History. Anecdotes, pleasant Stories, and is rich in short articles covering a wide range of topics. Teachers from Ohio to California have universally given it their approval and support

OPENING BALL.—Next Friday evening Mr. S. A. Gibson, proprietor of the Pollard House, will give a soiree in his large dining hall. Tickets, including lunch for gentleman and lady, $1 50 See advertisement elsewhere.

BOWERS MANSION.—Nat. Holmes, proprietor of the Franktown hotel, has now taken charge of the Bowers Mansion. Nat. understands the business. Let Reno give him a picnic party next month.

Go to the new harness shop at L. W Lee's stable, corner Fourth and Sierar streets Reno. 3-28tf.

Campaign Song.

[Composed by Workingman Jones.]

AIR—MY COCKTAIL IN THE MORNING.

Oh, the Workingman is up and doin',
And he says that "John must go."
Tul-la-la-ta-ta-de.
And if John does not go very soon,
We shall show him what we know,
And if Friedman tries to break us up,
We will serve him like the Chinaman.
We'll fire him out,
We'll fire him out,
That's just what we'll do,
We'll fire him out,
We'll fire him out,
That's just what we'll do,
Oh, Lon Walker is our President,
And we have three Vices now—

John P. Owens.

One of America's greatest comedians will appear to-night at Smith's Academy of Music in his greatest character. The double bill which met with great favor in San Francisco and on the Comstock will be presented to-night. Joshua Butterby as an impersonation is alone worth the price of admission, while Mr. Owens as Solon Shingle never fails to get the sympathy of his hearers for the old Yankee teamster who "jest left his cattle outside, and is lookin' for that bar'l o' apple sass." Go to-night by all means. To-morrow night "Our Boys," a play which enjoyed unprecedented favor in London and the Eastern cities.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical Institute.

209, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.
Established in 1854,

For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1850, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private dispensary, in order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment, for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Czapkay would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession. The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated. Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address,

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to William T. Frank, Annie Frank, S. M. Jamison and J. C. Hagerman, Greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as Defendants by J. E. Jones and Jas. H. Kinkead, co-partners doing business under the firm name of J. E. Jones & Co., as Plaintiffs, in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover judgment and decree of this Court that a certain conveyance of W. T. Frank to Annie Frank, bearing date Dec. 16th, 1876, is in trust to pay these Plaintiffs their lawful claim of $400 and interest thereon due on a certain promissory note bearing date Aug. 9th, 1876, that a certain conveyance to J. C. Hagerman by said Annie Frank was executed by virtue of said trust, and that the said note executed by said Hagerman to said Annie Frank be decreed to be in whole or in part the property of said W. T. Frank, that the money due thereon be applied in payment of a judgment recovered by Plaintiffs against the above Defendants W. T. Frank, N. J. Reff, Jno. S. Gilson and G. W. Cunningham in the above Court on the 28th day of December, 1877, for the sum of Four Hundred Dollars, principal, and interest amounting to One Hundred and Thirty-three Dollars, and costs of suit of Seventy-One and 10-100 Dollars, with interest thereon at two per cent. per month from date of said judgment till paid, and accruing costs; and that said S. M. Jamison be restrained from in any manner negotiating or transferring said note, and said J. C. Hagerman be restrained from paying the full amount of said note, but retain an amount sufficient to pay the aforesaid sum of money, and for such other and further relief as the Court can lawfully grant, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said County.

And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

(seal) IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, P. B. COMSTOCK, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 7th day of March, A. D. 1878.

P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk.
WM. CAIN, Attorney for Plaintiffs. [3-9]

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, was first discovered in 1850, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. Be Dainge, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1855, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.
